

CANADIAN VETS
TO OBTAIN LAND

OTTAWA, Ont., March 17.—Canadian soldiers who served in the war will soon be able to obtain a large area of western reserve land which has been thrown open through cancellation by the crown, according to announcement by the Soldier Settlement board. Action has been taken to dispose of 75,000 acres of Hudson's bay reserve lands situated in the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta and 18,400 acres of Donkeybush reserve lands near Kamuch, Saskatchewan.

A portion of the land will be sold April 15 and the proceeds given to the veterans to offset settlement expenses and to aid returned men physically whose condition and circumstances necessitate their being settled on land. The remainder of the area will be thrown open about April 28 for soldier grant entry. Assistance in the form of farm loans for stock and equipment will be given to those men whose knowledge of farming will enable them to proceed with the development and operation of their lands.

His Name "Sauerhoefer"

Almost Busted Romance

Springfield, Ill., March 17.—George Peter Sauerhoefer, of Farmington, Mo., and Miss Nancy Mazy, also of Farmington, Mo., were in the courtroom today for a hearing on their marriage license. Sauerhoefer, who broke up in chunks in her mouth, it was too hard to juggle, so when George Peter popped the question, Nancy said yes, with reservations. The reservations were that Peter got himself a new surname. Peter was agreeable to anything to get the girl—so he and Nancy traveled to Springfield, here Peter made application to Judge Burton in the circuit court for a new name plate in the way of George Peter Markland. The judge himself a staunch proponent of free and easy speech, sputtered over Sauerhoefer a couple of times and finally wrote George Peter Markland on a certificate, forever legalizing Peter to bear that surname. Two minutes after that George and Nancy were at the county clerk's office investing a dollar and a half in a marriage license. That paved the way for Sauerhoefer's wedding March 17, which placed a couple of hours later for them.

Children Not Vaccinated
Barred from School; Sues

Princeton, N. H., March 17.—William Bassett, well known resident of this town, has brought suit against the New Hampshire State board of education, seeking to compel the board to educate his two daughters, aged 13 and 16 years. Bassett charges that for three years the children have been barred from school because they were not vaccinated. He claims that in spite of these certificates of three physicians to fulfill the law an exemption of his children from vaccination. Bassett declares that in spite of these certificates the board of health of this town has not permitted the two girls to go to public schools with other children.

He-Girls and She-Men
Disturb a Cardinal

Boston, Mass., March 17.—Women in this country are becoming masculine and men are growing effeminate, in the opinion of Cardinal O'Connell. Man is the head of the house, he told a meeting of men in the cathedral of the Holy Cross recently, and should assert his proper authority.

Cardinal O'Connell said he did not understand how a father could look on and see his children, especially the girls running rampant without any consideration for modesty. He criticized the evil of extravagance in expenditures, and predicted a financial reaction in this country some what similar to that which has caused Europe's virtual bankruptcy.

POLITICIANS PUT
REIN ON PREMIER

London, Eng., March 17.—Premier Lloyd George's plans of fusing two wings of the coalition into a new party met an unexpected check yesterday, according to the London Times, when he privately addressed Liberal members of the ministry and urged that it was impossible at present to establish a purely Liberal government and that if the Liberals were to share in molding events at this critical time they could not do so in association with others. Such a large proportion of his colleagues, says the Times, objected to his view that he was obliged to promise that he would go slow when discussing the situation at a meeting of all the coalitionists and Liberal members of parliament Thursday.

Spanned Horse with $5
Bills; Paid That Price

Montrose, Colo., March 17.—Poor judgment of distance cost the buyer of a horse here some $15 extra. While the owner, the animal and the prospective buyer were bargaining over the value of the animal—the purchaser having offered $10 and the owner demanding $15—the purchaser declared he would pay whatever price the spanning of the animal with $5 bills amounted to. It took 12 and one-half $5 bills to go around the horse and the price of $62.50 was paid.
